PERSONAL AND LOCAL ITEMS OF NEWS.

Wells, Fargo & Co. swung out a new sign yesterday.

The county commissioners will meet at a board of equalization to-morrow.

District court will convene Tuesday morning with Judge Sluss on the bench.

The city treasury was increased yesterday to the extent of $100, fines imposed on two gamblers.

The piano used at the memorial services Friday, was kindly furnished free of charge by Mr. Jacques, of the Temple of Music.

James Godsey, an old man generally known here and hereabouts, was found dead in his bed at Wellington yesterday.

The Hutchinson delegation of business men that were in the city yesterday, made their headquarters at the Douglas Avenue.

Yesterday Treasurer L. M. Woodcock received in the way of taxes a little over $1200, and it wasn't a very good day for paying taxes either.

A wagon load of very handsome flowers was received yesterday by C. A. Rose, proprietor of the Wichita greenhouse. They came from Kansas City.

Jones & Jenkins is the name of a new laundry firm which is worrying the clothes corporation of Charlie Sieg and Ah Wing on the east end of the avenue.

Mrs. L. F. Sherwood and daughter arrived last night, and will take possession of the new home built this spring by the doctor up near Judge Lusk's.

Although the roads were in a very heavy condition yesterday, there was a large number of people in from the country, and the merchants did a good business.

A small box nailed up on a shade tree or post, would save our carrier boy much trouble, as anxiety and your paper from getting wet or down into the mud.

About 5,000 pounds of express matter was sent out to the neighboring towns last night by the Wells, Fargo & Co. express. Some 4,000 pounds was in a liquid shape.

W. F. Walker, assignee, has disposed of lots No. 44, 45 and 46 on Fifth avenue, and the flouring mills thereon located, to L. G. Tillinghast. The consideration was $5,700.

There has been collected in the police court for fines and costs during the past month just closed $446.55, which has all been turned over to the city by Judge Gibson.

There is probably no truth in the statement that Colonel Hartzell, manager of the street railroad, and the fellow that manipulates the weather, are "standing in" with each other.

We are informed by R. R. Coleman that the track on the Western & Western railroad will be laid as far as Kingman by Monday evening, unless it rains so as to interfere with track-laying.

The Wichita building and loan association held its regular meeting last evening. We are informed that about $1,000 worth of stock was sold, which was purchased at a premium of nearly 25 per cent.

Thomas Trickey spent yesterday in the city. Mulvane is enjoying an increasing trade, but Thomas delights to get up to Wichita for a half day among his numerous friends whenever opportunity offers.

Dr. D. W. Smith expected to leave for Chicago to-morrow morning, but a telegram that a party of old customers would be over next Monday with a whole week's work for him, let him down "ker flog."

H. D. Stowe arrived on last evening's train from Louisville, Kentucky. He is an old experienced artist and will be found at the Wichita Art Gallery, in Folger's block, opposite the postoffice, Main street.

We are pleased to state that during the week 150 new chairs have been added to those already in the rink, therefore all those who attend religious services at the rink to-day will be comfortably seated.

W. H. Newton, one of Sedgwick county's leading farmers, whose land lies between the two rivers, has four acres of rye which would be hard to beat for size. He had a stalk in town yesterday which measured seven feet in length.

New counters and shelving are being put into the storeroom at 128 Douglas avenue, for the reception of W. B. Hull's stock of notions and fancy goods. Mr. Hull expects to be ready for business in about ten days.

The district court for Harper county held but a brief session, Judge Sluss returning home early in the week. The mid-summer term for Sedgwick county opens Tuesday, June 2nd, with a docket that two months of steady labor would hardly clear.

By some oversight two of the finest of all the bouquets sent in to the decoration committee were woefully neglected. Mrs. Charles Lilling, of Wichita township, will accept the thanks of the committee especially, and please pardon the oversight.

Our lady readers should not forget the special sale of laces and ribbons at the dry goods store of Mr. Munson, next Monday and Tuesday. Mr. Munson carries a very large and choice line of these goods, and these dealers of bargains should read his large advertisement in another column, and govern themselves accordingly.

Mr. Taylor, of the Sedgwick City Postgraph, accompanied by Mr. Cook of Sedgwick, honored us with a call yesterday. Mr. T. is making of the Postgraph one of the very liveliest and best papers of Southwestern Kansas, which one paper in this section does not rival for typographical beauty.

As soon as the Winch building being erected opposite the postoffice is completed it will be opened up as a wholesale and retail boot and shoe store by Henry Hoffmaster, of Rock Island, Illinois. Mr. H. is thoroughly familiar with the business, and proposes putting in one of the finest and most complete stocks in the west.

The Charlotte Thompson theater company left for the north on the early train this morning, after filling a three nights engagement in this city. They go from here direct to Denver. We take pleasure in saying that the company, of which Miss Thompson is the star, is a first-class one, and worthy of a liberal reception.

When it comes to tastefully arranging goods in show windows, Bittling Bros. has few equals. One of their front windows attracted universal attention yesterday. In it were displayed nearly 125 different styles and colors of gents' shirts, while in the other were hats—hats all the way from the two for a nickel kind up to the artistic plug for an X.

The Masonic meeting Friday night, for the purpose of doing third degree work, was largely attended by local members of the lodge, and also by several visiting members, there being present Grand Commander J. Jay Duck, of Emporia; Past Grand Master and State Custodian William C. McGill, of Fredonia, and Past Master T. M. Trickey, of Mulvane. The third degree work was done by the latter. At the conclusion of business a fine supper of choice cold edibles was served in the hall, thus ending the evening's work in a very pleasing manner.

A CLOSE CALL.

Yesterday afternoon, while Marshal Cairns was sitting in front of a Douglas avenue store talking with a friend, his attention was attracted to two men coming up street mounted upon two very large and fine horses, which gave every indication of having been hard rode, their jaded appearance and hanging heads leaving no doubt that they had come a long distance without rest. The riders were by no means possessing in looks. Their dress and general make-up was sufficient to stamp them as holding no enviable place among their fellow men. Marshal Cairns, who is ever alert and watchful, "aired" them up in an instant, and also the excellent animals they rode, and turning to his friend remarked, "Those horses are stolen, or ought to be"—he at once seeing that they were out of character with the men who bestrode them. The men rode on and soon disappeared from view. A few minutes later, on going to the postoffice, Cairns received a postal card from Henry Mayer, marshal of Newton, giving a full and exact description of the very horses these men rode, saying they had been stolen and that a reward of $100 was offered for men and horses. Cairns lost no time in mounting a horse and trying to find the parties who but so recently had boldly passed through the street. He rode out from the city in every direction, but could get no clue to the parties he sought. They are probably old hands at the business and as soon as they got away from the city put spurs to their animals and thus escaped.

BURGULARS AT WORK.

Wichita has always been remarkably exempt from the work of prowling sneak thieves. For years our citizens have enjoyed almost a perfect immunity from this class of amoyance. So safely have they felt that a large majority of the people never thought of locking the doors of their homes at night. But from late occurrences it seems that Wichita is growing to be nearly as bad off as some of her neighbors. About the boldest thing, though which has yet occurred was the entrance made to the residence of Judge Benjamin Fisher night before last. No one of the inmates has the least idea when the house was entered, but a watch and gold chain were taken from the pocket of Wm. Obrist and a watch from the pocket of his son. Mr. O. J. Cook was also a sufferer to the tune of six or seven dollars. His pants were carried out to the front gate, we believe. In this connection we will suggest that a stone pile for vagrants order from the city council or acting mayor would relieve the city of this class of gentry very quickly.

Hon. Henry C. Jewett, of Buffalo, New York, the gentleman who purchased the large tract of land near Cheney, in this county, which is being improved rapidly and very extensively and being stocked with fine cattle and horses, arrived in the city yesterday accompanied by a friend, a Mr. Kennedy. Mr. Jewett is making his headquarters at Neiderlander's real estate office. Mr. Jewett's farm is one of the coming big things of this valley and it will not be long before this mammoth stock farm will have a State wide reputation. Mr. Jewett took in this country from the Atlantic to the Pacific in his search for a desirable stock farm and his conclusion was, before he bought a foot of land that the lower Arkansas valley stood unrivalled, and he has not changed his opinion.

PERSONAL MENTION.

C. E. Pierce, of Newton, United States revenue collector for this district, was in the city yesterday.

F. D. Brown, Topeka; J. W. Sloan, Pittsburg, Pa.; Wm. Terrell, Terre Haute, Ind.; were among the arrivals at the Occidental yesterday. The two latter, we understand, are prospecting with a view of investing capital in Sedgwick county property.

R. E. Taylor, H. Raff, G. B. Keef, C. Chambers, F. E. Christman, F. Vin. ent, R. M. Esler, Chas. Collins, of Hutchinson, were in the city yesterday in consultation with Messrs. Hartzell, Hatfield and other prominent men of the Wichita, Western & Denver railroad. We were unable to learn the issue of the conference.

R. M. Esler, editor of the Hutchinson News, was in the city yesterday on business and gave us a pleasant call.

Wm. Play is a late arrival in the city from Silver City, N. M.

Hon. John Kelly, of Attica township, gave us a friendly shake yesterday. He reports everything booming in and around Goddard, and says that the crop prospect has never been better than at present.

H. L. Strong, a rising young attorney of the growing town of Cheney, gave the Eagle an agreeable call yesterday.

John Armor, of the firm of Arm & Stewart, leading stock buyers of Goddard, was in the city yesterday.

C. M. Taylor, of Sedgwick, Kansas, registered yesterday at the Tremont.

G. J. Gorman, Pittsburg, Pa.; J. H. Sullivan, Rochester, N. Y.; and E. L. Southward, Toledo, Ohio, are at the Tremont.

J. H. McQuown, the popular Presbyterian preacher of Mulvane, arrived in the city yesterday morning on his way home from the Presbyterian Assembly recently in session at Saratoga. Mr. McQuown visited his old home in Pennsylvania, but thinks the more one travels the better he will like Kansas.

S. L. Hamilton, editor of the Wellingtonian, passed through the city yesterday on his way to Chicago.

Charles T. Boyd, for some months connected with the business department of the Daily Republican, and D. W. Tifford, both of Emporia, gave us a pleasant call last evening.

Dr. Crise and wife returned last evening from New York, where the doctor went to procure fixtures for a dental office, which he will open at once in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery, of Mulvane, came to Wichita to attend the Charlotte Thompson entertainment last evening.

We understand that the levee on the Little river is quite badly broken, and needs repairs in order to insure the safety of the city in case of a sudden rise in the river. In view of the heavy snows in the mountains, and the prospect of greatly swollen streams in this vicinity, would it not be well for the committee on streets to give this levee their attention. Within the past few days the water in the river has risen about eighteen inches, and no one can tell how soon the river will be swollen beyond its banks and the adjacent country inundated unless proper measures for protection are speedily taken.

Remember you can now go to Chicago and return for $20.85 by the Santa Fe and "Frisco" roads. Tickets will be on sale till June 3d, and good for return passage till June 10th. 12-3

The round trip tickets to Dayton, Ohio, at $24.40 are still on sale at the union depot by the Santa Fe and "Frisco" roads, and good till June 30th for the return passage. 22-3
